

Young Person's Housing Support Worker Ipswich

Full Time and Part Time hours available
£11 per hour - FTE £21,307.00

Are you looking for an exciting new challenge to manage within a charity that provides support to young people?

About the service

This is an exciting time to join us as we open new accommodation services in Ipswich, which will help improve the lives of homeless young people, aged 16-25. The role involves lone working and on-call requirements, flexible working to cover some evenings and weekends to meet the needs of the young people.

About the role

You will play a key role in the support and resettlement of young people, covering a wide variety of tasks that contribute to young people maintaining a tenancy and moving on independently into the community. It is essential you are a driver with access to a vehicle.

What we are looking for:

- Previous experience of paid or volunteer work in a similar role
- Experience of working with children and young people
- An understanding of relevant housing and benefits legislation
- Ability to display tact and diplomacy with a balanced judgement
- Confidence in dealing with complex or sensitive situations
- A driver with access to a vehicle

What we can offer you

- On call allowance
- Enhanced Holiday
- Generous Pension
- 24/7 Access to Employee Assistance Programme
- Occupational Health Support
- Cycle to Work Scheme
- Mental Health & Wellbeing Support
- Enhanced Company Sick Pay Scheme
- CPD Training

About us

For over 25 years' children, young people and families across Norfolk and Suffolk have been supported by The Benjamin Foundation to overcome big challenges in their lives.

Each night we accommodate 100 vulnerable young people, equating to over 40,000 safe nights sleep a year for local young people. They can finally feel safe from youth homelessness. We are proud to be the regional partner for the End Youth Homelessness campaign.

Each week 150 young people access our emotional wellbeing support. In the last year this equates to 7,500 emotional wellbeing support sessions improving their mental health, increasing their self-esteem and to finally feel understood.

Each year over 250 young people attended our youth work in the community to gain new life skills, expand their horizons and finally feel confident

Overall 2,000 local children and young people every year finally feel hopeful of a better future because of the work of The Benjamin Foundation.

The Benjamin Foundation are deeply connected to the local community, employing over 220 people in Norfolk and Suffolk
